DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

The references lined-through on the 1/31/06 IDS are duplicates of references which appear on the 11/14/05 IDS.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The exact meaning of the term "appropriate" is unclear. The examiner respectfully suggests deleting the term.

Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In the definition of R1, the phrase "...and/or further groups stable under the reaction conditions..." is unclear. That it is unclear exactly what these other groups may be, and, indeed, what exactly are the reaction conditions.

The remaining claims are also rejected under 35 USC 112, second paragraph, as claims which depend from indefinite claims are also indefinite. Ex parte Cordova, 10 USPQ 2d 1949, 1952 (PTO Bd. App. 1989).

Allowable Subject Matter

The subject matter of claims 1-18 would be allowable once the above 112 rejections have been overcome.

The closest prior art appears to be US 5,536,879, cited by applicant in the IDS, which teaches a process for preparing optically active amino alcohols by reducing the corresponding acids using ruthenium catalysts (abstract; Examples). The cited prior art neither teaches nor suggests using the instant Pd/Re or Pt/Re catalysts, however. Nor would it have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify the teachings of the prior art in order to arrive at that of the instant invention. There is no motivation to do so.
